CUSU LGBT+ CAMPAIGN

- Successful events have been held in conjunction with the Law Fac
History Month has begun - nearly all colleges are now flying the flag and a report will be made to be used to try and pressure the remaining colleges next year.

University Social Media is releasing several films over the course of the month about LGBT+ Life in Cambridge, with the first being released around the beginning of February.

The survey has closed - we have had around 400 responses and will be putting out our findings in a readable format.

CUSU BME CAMPAIGN

- the BME Campaign has publicly launched Fuse, a space for queer students of colour at Cambridge. We’ve put on meetings and forums so far and are hoping to launch a campaign for LGBT+ history month.
- we’ve been sending FOI requests to colleges asking them about the number of racial incidents they’ve been aware of.
- we’re releasing a survey to document racial incidents affecting students at their colleges or faculties.
- we’ve successfully held three shadowing scheme mingles.

10A. Motion to support the Sustainable Ball movement through Ethical Affairs

Proposed by Ellen Pearce-Davies, CUSU Ethical Affairs officer.

Seconded by Jessie Davidson, CUECS member.

CUSU Notes:

1. That May Balls in their current state are extremely unsustainable;
2. That they use an excessive amount of resources, create a huge amount of waste and produce a lot of extra greenhouse gases;
3. That student organisers are in position to mitigate the environmental impacts of May Balls;

CUSU Believes:
1. That the environmental impact of May Balls is everyone’s concern;
2. That we have a responsibility as both organisers and attendees to mitigate this impact;
3. That there are sufficient resources available to make May Balls significantly more sustainable;

CUSU Resolves:

1. To officially support the Sustain-a-ball campaign jointly with other interested parties (namely Cambridge University Environmental Consulting Society, CUECS);
2. To mandate the CUSU Ethical Affairs Team to work towards greener May Balls
3. To provide resources and a platform for this campaign through the Ethical Affairs team;
4. To co-opt a member to facilitate a working relationship between the Ethical Affairs Team and CUECS
5. To encourage all JCRs to make sure there is a green officer or equivalent on every ball committee.

Council is asked to ratify the proposed Sabbatical Officer contracts included in the Supporting Documents.
