9A MOTION TO ACCEPT PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CUSU DISABLED STUDENTS' CAMPAIGN CONSTITUTION

CUSU Notes:

1. That the recent referendum on CUSU's constitution for the implementation of a full-time Disabled Students' Sabbatical Officer passed with a mandate of over 90%, with over 20% of the student body participating in the voting;

2. That, akin to the rules for the CUSU Women's Officer, the job description for the sabbatical role appears in the Campaign's constitution, rather than the standing orders for CUSU's constitution.

3. That CUSU is now mandated to implement the position as soon as possible;

4. That CUSU Disabled Students' Campaign must have their constitution approved at CUSU Council.

CUSU Believes:

1. That disabled students have the political autonomy define the constitution of their Autonomous Campaign;

2. That there is importance in the inclusion of liberation roles into the Campaign's elected Officers;

3. That the constitution of CUSU Disabled Students' Campaign needs to be updated to include the job description of the full-time Officer.

CUSU Resolves:

1. To accept these proposed amendments to the CUSU Disabled Students' Campaign constitution.
