

Employee Privacy Notice: How we use your personal information at CUSU

This page provides information about the use of your personal information by CUSU.

Cambridge University Students' Union ("we", "our" or "us") promises to respect any personal data you share with us, or that we get from other organisations and keep it safe. We aim to be clear when we collect your data and not do anything you wouldn't reasonably expect.

Facilitating our legal requirements, organisation policy and services to our employees through using your personal data allows us make better decisions, communicate more efficiently and, ultimately, ensure you receive the services required as a Union employee.

1. What is 'personal information'?

'Personal information' means any information which relates to or identifies you as an individual.

2. How we collect and process your personal information

When you apply for a role

When you apply for a role at the Students' Union you will complete an application form. This form will contain personal information about you. The Union has a legitimate interest in processing this data for the purposes of considering you for that role and for anonymous statistical analysis.

When you become an employee

When you become an employee of the Students' Union you form a contract with us which declares that we will process some personal and sensitive data to comply with our legal obligations and to fulfill our policies and procedures.

When a Third Party provides us with your data

Your information may be shared with us by independent organisations such as Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs or external references. These independent third parties will only do so when you have indicated that you have given consent or there is a legal obligation to share this data with us. You should check their Privacy Policy when you provide your information to understand fully how they will process your data.

3. What personal data we collect and how we use it

The type and quantity of information we collect and how we use it depends on why you are providing it.

7. How long is my information kept?

Any information that you submit to CUSU, or that was otherwise collected, is kept for a period of seven years, or longer dependent upon the use of your data as outlined at the point of collection. Medical data may be retained for up to 15 years. Anonymised forms of your data may be kept beyond this.

We will ensure that:

- data is kept safe and secure;
- data is handled legally, responsibly, and ethically;
- we are open and transparent about what data we are using and why; and
- all legal requirements are met regarding data privacy.

8. How can I access my personal information?

You have the right to access the personal information that is held about you by CUSU through a 'Subject Access' request. You also have the right to ask us to correct any inaccurate personal information we hold about you, to delete personal information, or otherwise restrict our processing, object to processing or to receive an electronic copy of the personal information you provided to us. For details on how to do this, please contact info@cusu.cam.ac.uk.

10. Who can I contact?
