

My Priorities

Making CUSU more present and visible in your life

- Running 'Drop In' sessions every term at every college giving students the opportunity to hold CUSU to account
- Utilising the CUSU lounge by running a CUSU café in the day and ents in the evenings, to provide both revenue for CUSU and an additional social space for students
- Making CUSU vlogs to supplement weekly emails and keep students up to date in a more engaging way

Reducing inequality between colleges

- Promoting greater consistency and compassion in intermission policies
- Protecting and expanding the Cambridge Bursary Scheme so that financial support is not determined by college wealth
- Supporting 'Cut the Rent' campaigns to reduce the financial impact of the 'college lottery'

Fighting for better pastoral care

- Campaigning for the employment of librarians, porters and other student-facing college staff as tutors
- Encouraging greater diversity among counsellors to better support the needs of minority groups
- Implementing an accreditation scheme for supervisors and tutors, to encourage them to take up optional training in areas including mental health support and sexual harassment

Supporting JCRs and Societies

- Providing welfare and leadership training for student committees
- Organising a university-wide meeting every term for each JCR role, to bring together every food officer, access officer, etc. to share ideas and resources

Why Me?

From university-wide campaigns and college level reforms, to university sport and societies, I have been involved in many areas of student life. I understand that student concerns are wide ranging and that many students feel disconnected from CUSU. I want to change that.

I will be a President who listens to and engages the wider student community. I will be a President who fights for student welfare, rights and opportunities. I will be a President who stands up for you.
